

City News In Brief

(From Thursday's Daily.)

A New Daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Cruikshank on Tuesday welcomed a new baby girl into their family.

Visiting Friends.

Mrs. Wiley Coughran of Skull valley, is in the city for a visit with friends, remaining for a few days.

Visitor Leaves.

Mrs. C. H. Stocking returned to Oakland, Calif., yesterday after an extended visit in the city with her uncle, Fred W. Williams.

Range Visitor.

Ben Harmon was an arrival yesterday from Camp Wood, where he has range interests with his brother, L. L. Harmon, and reports conditions as satisfactory in that range region.

Succeeds Doc Norwood.

O. H. Jett has taken the position as assistant clerk of the board of supervisors, succeeding Doc Norwood, who held the position for a long time before he was called away in the army draft.

Mine Visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Giroux and children were arrivals yesterday from the Swastika camp, where the former is operating on a lease, and will remain for several days to visit with friends in the city.

Returning Home.

Mrs. Wesley Clinton, who had been at Jerome visiting with a sister, having been called by illness, is in the city for a brief visit and before returning to Chico, Calif., her home, will visit with Mrs. Harris at a mining camp near Mayer.

Home on Furlough.

Lorion Reif, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Reif, arrived yesterday from Camp Kearny, on a ten-day furlough to visit with relatives and friends, and is receiving a welcome from all. He is attached to Co. A, 158th infantry, as chief clerk.

Visiting Old Home.

A. R. White, a former well known resident of this city, after an absence of ten years, was an arrival yesterday to remain for a brief visit with friends. He is now with the T. B. Stewart Contracting Company, of Phoenix, and is on a business trip through the north.

Back From Phoenix.

F. A. Bower of Mayer, who had been spending several days at the State capital, returned to Prescott yesterday and states that things down in the valley are so hot as to cause travelers to get right out as soon as they possibly can and head for the higher and cooler parts of the State.

Southern Visitors.

Mrs. Norman Craig and nephew, Albert Hare, of Pima, Graham county, arrived during the week in auto, and yesterday were joined in this city by Miss Bessie Berryman and sister, Mrs. J. P. Lowing of Douglas, the party to remain here for a short visit in motorizing to points adjacent, leaving then for Coconino county to remain for the summer.

(From Friday's Daily.)

Jerome Visitor.

Attorney H. M. Gibbs of Jerome is here on legal business.

To Become Expert.

Elmer Land left yesterday to attend an automobile school in Kansas City. Visiting Old Home.

Rev. C. W. Denning, pastor of the Methodist church of Jerome, is in the city for a brief visit, having business matters to look after.

Farming Business.

P. E. Lodge, manager, and R. S. Cookingham, engineer of the Prescott Farms Co., visited the city yesterday from Jerome Junction, where the big land movement continues under development.

From Kearny.

N. A. Lind, of the 158th infantry, arrived during the week from Camp Kearny, Calif., on a furlough until June 20 to visit with his wife, father and brother, and is receiving a welcome from many acquaintances.

Return Home.

Mrs. A. E. McGill and children who had been residing at the United Mines Co. camp, Congress, for the past eight years, returned to Chicago, their old home, on Tuesday where they will remain. Their leaving is regretted by many friends.

Home on Furlough.

Meyer Emerson, second-class seaman with rank as a petty officer, is in the city on a furlough to visit with his mother, Mrs. Stephen G. Emerson, and many friends. He is in training at the San Diego naval school, and is receiving a welcome from all.

Death of Sister.

Mrs. Joe Metz received the sad news yesterday by wire of the death of her sister, Mrs. Sam Acker. On account of the illness of her husband, who is in the hospital, she will be unable to go east to attend the funeral.

Will Get Late Start.

The managers of the Elks' theatre stated yesterday that the performance at this house tonight will be delayed until 9:15 so as to give everybody an opportunity of attending the band concert of the 158th infantry band before coming to the theatre.

Mine Inspection.

Captain J. P. Hodgson, chief consulting engineer for the Phelps-Dodge Corporation, arrived from Bisbee during the week, and with A. B. Peach, superintendent of Yavapai interests, left yesterday for Yuma to inspect a copper holding of the syndicate to determine what will be done with it.

Pioneer Woman Returns.

C. W. Bennett, of Clarkdale, was a visitor yesterday to meet his mother, Mrs. Alvina Bennett and sister, Miss Allie Bennett, who arrived from Pomona, Calif., after an absence of over three years. They are to again occupy the old Bennett homestead on Groom creek, remaining for the summer. Summer Outing. Mr. and Mrs. Fen S. Hildreth motored from Phoenix to Prescott yesterday and are en route to Lake Mary and Oak creek on a fishing expedition for a few weeks. Mr. Hildreth states he will get in touch with the army tribe in the northern county to familiarize himself with the art of angling, when he comes to Lake Watson to make the big catch.

Getting Warm.

S. A. Abbott, mining in Black canyon district, visited the city yesterday to meet a brother coming from Durango, Colo., and states that warm weather got in action last Sunday with the highest temperature ever known for so early in the season, 104 degrees. Cattlemen, he says, are predicting a bad year, and grazing is poor, at present.

Good Outlook.

Robert Fennie, owner of the famous Fennie Soda Springs on Beaver creek, an interesting freak of nature, is visiting the city, and reports a fine outlook in fruit raising, no damage occurring from cold weather. He also states tourists are beginning to arrive to look at Montezuma's well and Montezuma's castle near his place, as well as does the spring on his place attract many.

On Visit to Tempe.

Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Farley left yesterday afternoon for Tempe, where today they will attend the graduation exercises of the Tempe Normal. Mr. Farley's daughter, Miss Rose Mary, being among the graduates. They will return to Prescott on Saturday or Sunday. Miss Farley, who is now well qualified to take charge of school work, will have a school at Humboldt during the next term.

Mining Man Arrives.

H. A. Geisendorfer, a former superintendent of the Bagdad Copper Co., of Eureka district, is in the city after an inspection of the big holdings on Copper creek, and is returning to Pioche, Nev., where he is operating. This being his second trip during the past month significance is attached to the future of this big concern, and resumption at an early date is the report in circulation.

To the Coast.

Lewis Wain, mining east of Mayer, is in the city en route to Alameda, Calif., to say farewell to a son and nephew, both volunteering to serve in the regular service. They expect to leave the Presidio at an early date, hence the above relative is leaving for the above place. The recruits are 34 and 36 years old respectively, and both have had military training.

Recovers From Illness.

Conductor and Mrs. H. P. McNeill have returned from Los Angeles, and their many friends in the city will be pleased to learn that the lady has fully recovered after being quite seriously ill in the above city. Lawrence McNeill, who was called by the illness of his mother, returned with his parents and has resumed his duties as a postal clerk in the local postoffice.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

Legal Business.

Attorney H. M. Gibbs, of Jerome, is in the city having professional duties to attend to before the Superior court.

Comes to Visit.

Mrs. G. W. Gibson, of Kingman, is in the city, coming to visit with her son-in-law, Dr. Vivian, of Humboldt, physician to the Consolidated.

Visitor From Range.

Mrs. Jones J. Bishop, wife of the well known rangeman of Avila Rock, is in the city to remain for a few days visiting with friends.

Leaves City.

W. M. Poulson has gone to Gallup, his future home, where he will take charge of an undertaking establishment, also becoming interested in the business.

Mining Man Here.

H. H. Dyer, manager of the Shannon Copper Co., of Clifton, is a recent arrival to look over the situation at the Yeager canyon holdings near this city, where a miners' strike occurred last week.

Returns to Kearny.

Charles Punteneay, a member of the 158th Arizona Infantry, stationed at Camp Kearny, left yesterday afternoon for that place after having been in this city for the past 30 days visiting with his mother, Mrs. George Punteneay at Punteneay.

Passing Through.

Charles Sauer, contracting carpenter of Jerome, is in the city on route home from Glendale, where is constructing an incline truss and loading platform for the S. F. P. & P. railroad.

Officer's Family Arrives.

Captain Van Horn, one of the officers attached to Ft. Whipple, yesterday met his wife and son Jimmie who had arrived from the former home of the family in New Mexico. Mrs. Van Horn will make Prescott her home.

Visiting Old Home.

Mrs. F. E. Cruise was an arrival yesterday from Phoenix, to remain for an extended visit with friends at her former home, and while here will be a guest of Mrs. J. C. Herndon. She is receiving a welcome from many friends.

Leaves Shipping.

James Wills and William Groulund, leasing on the Senator, are reported to be making important determinations in a new zone under development, from which a heavy tonnage of high grade ore is being produced. They have started to ship to Humboldt.

Lively Country.

John Shivers is in the city from the Copper King mine, Eureka district, which property he reports as a steady shipper of high grade, zinc and the output will be increased as soon as repairs are made to the wagon road out of Hillside. A strip of about ten miles requires additional work when auto truck service will be increased.

Country Visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cook motored to the city yesterday from the Rimrock Herford Ranch in Lower Agua Fria valley, to visit with relatives and friends. The first-named states that the second cutting of alfalfa has started, and the 200 thoroughbreds hereof are faring well, many having been sold recently to ranchmen for grading up purposes.

Officer Ill.

Major Ralph Reynolds, among the first American officers to go overseas, has arrived in New York City and is invalided home, presumably from illness due to being a victim to Hun gas. He is en route to the military hospital at the Presidio of San Francisco, his wife joining him at an eastern seaport recently. She is a daughter of W. W. Durbin of this city, and formerly made her home in Prescott.

Back From Phoenix.

Judge J. J. Sweeney returned yesterday afternoon from Phoenix, where he had been for the past day or so looking after some legal business. His Honor is particularly fortunate in the matter of having distinguished company on the same train with him on his return trips from the capital, having come in yesterday with the 158th infantry band. The last time he came up from Phoenix he had the honor of bringing Secretary McAdoo here with him.

(From Sunday's Daily.)

Visiting With Son.

C. B. King is here from Los Angeles for a two weeks' visit at the home of his son Homer.

Visiting Friends.

Mrs. M. P. Castle, of Camp Verde, was an arrival Friday, coming for a week-end visit with friends in the city.

Brief Visit.

Mike Kenny, a well known hoisting engineer, was a visitor yesterday from Jerome, coming on business and returning later.

Here For Visit.

Mrs. Grant Beason and son Jamie are here for a visit at the home of the former's mother, Mrs. E. DeSilva.

Oil Man Here.

A. C. Parry of Jerome, prominently identified with an oil movement in Big Chino valley, was an arrival yesterday to remain for an extended visit.

Come to Reside.

Mr. and Mrs. T. V. Budden of Needles, motored to the city a few days ago, and have decided to remain, the first-named to engage in business later.

Phoenix Author Tarries.

Carl R. Hertzke, author of "Cactus and Blossoms," of Phoenix, is stopping off here to take another look at the Mile High City. The author is coast bound.

He's a Corporal Now.

Mrs. E. DeSilva received word this week that her son, Earle W. Shaw of Camp Pike, Arkansas, is now wearing the corporal's stripes on his uniform.

Range Artist Here.

Jeff England, cowboy of note in Southern Arizona, arrived in the city yesterday and is en route to Springer, N. M., to take the management of a big cattle outfit, leaving later this week.

Verde Visitor.

Dr. W. L. Osborn, of Camp Verde, is in the city on a business trip, reporting the farm outlook as gratifying, and huge crops will be harvested later, the principal production being small grains.

Pocahontas Shipping.

W. H. Skinner of Mayer, general manager of the Pocahontas Copper Queen Mining Co., was a Prescott visitor yesterday and stated that the company was now shipping some fine ore to the Gray Eagle reduction works.

It Wasn't Otis.

The Journal-Miner of yesterday stated that Otis Crose of this city was one of the members of the military band which visited this city yesterday. It seems that Otis is not with the organization, but his brother, John H. Crose is a member of the band.

Mining Business.

Ed S. Rogers, a well known resident of Mayer, who has mining interests adjacent to that town, is in the city on a business trip. He states more legitimate mining is noticeable today in that field than ever known, and new coppers of magnitude were beginning to attract attention as to the possibilities of the country.

Probably In It.

Harry Dugan, a printer by trade, who was stationed at Fort Whipple with the 18th infantry, was transferred to the marine corps from Fort Bliss some months ago, and is probably now with the celebrated arm in France. Dugan formerly was a marine and was again accepted at the Brooklyn navy yard.

Getting Dry.

W. Wilkins, merchant and rangeman of Dewey, was a visitor yesterday, reporting that farmers and cattlemen were complaining of dry weather, and rain is badly needed at present. The season is far behind last year, and is pronounced by old timers as one of the most exceptional known in many years.

Can't Resist.

John Fredericks and Billy Henderson, both at Camp Kearny with the 158th infantry, send word to friends that they have asked for a furlough to come to Prescott to participate in cowboy features on July 4th. They are experts in range doings and state that they desire to help a bit for Red Cross and any other kind of war work.

Back From Kearny.

Mrs. Mannie Castle, who for the past month has been staying with her husband at Camp Kearny, returned to Prescott this week, and will spend some time visiting with her mother, Mrs. Riley Kasser of Camp Verde. Mrs. Castle states that her husband is not yet certain as to the time he will be sent overseas, but is expecting such an order at almost any time, most of his comrades having already been started eastward.

Coast Visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. P. R. Sills, of Redlands, Calif., motored to the city during the week, and remain for a few days with Mrs. Nannie Broning and family who are camping out on Banning creek. Then they go to Cocopino county, the Grand canyon and return to this section to remain until about the middle of August. Mrs. Broning comes to this section from Colton, Calif., for her health, and has been here for a month.

Prominent Visitor.

Steve Girardot, one of the most prominent of Colorado rangemen, arrived from Denver a few days ago and is motoring through the country to make observations of the range situation, and desires to invest. He is pleased with Yavapai, and stated yesterday that in all probability he will buy a big outfit later. Mr. Girardot also has investigated New Mexico and before deciding on a location in this section is to make several localities.

"Over There."

The customary brief message of arriving "safely overseas" was received on Friday by Mrs. Mary Kingsley, a visitor from Mesa, sent by her nephew, Dennison Carroll, who enlisted a few months ago with the regulars at Fort Sheridan, Ill. The young man visited Prescott for three summers with his aunt, and is quite well known here. He was too anxious to serve abroad to wait for the national army to be trained out, and at the time was a few months under age of being drafted.

(From Tuesday's Daily.)

Auto Business.

John Massing has gone to Los Angeles on auto truck and coal business in this city.

Off For Coast.

Mrs. Myrtle Young and son Jimmie left on Sunday for Los Angeles and adjacent points, and will spend the summer at the beach resorts.

Will Summer On Coast.

Mrs. O. S. Wakeling and children left on Saturday for the coast, where they expect to remain for the summer.

Verde Visitor.

Thomas Carroll, one of the best known of Verde valley pioneers, is in the city from Cottonwood visiting with friends for a few days.

From Blue Bell.

Dell Lyman, the well known mining camp chief, is in the city from the Blue Bell mine, and leaves later for the Jerome field to accept a situation.

Here From Kingman.

Attorney Charles Herndon of Kingman was in Prescott on Sunday, called here by the death of his niece, Little Patsy Russell, the funeral occurring on Sunday afternoon.

Coast Visitors.

A. B. Fox and daughter, Miss Gladys, left on Sunday afternoon for Los Angeles, and will spend a week or two resting up at some of the adjacent beach resorts.

Visiting Friends.

Deputy Sheriff and Mrs. F. E. Bartlett and guests, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Boyd of Clarkdale, motored to the city yesterday on business and for a brief visit with friends.

Depart For Coast.

Misses Maxine Davis and Verle Beaver were among those who left this city on Sunday afternoon for the coast, expecting to remain in California during the summer months.

On Business Trip.

Attorney LeRoy Anderson of the firm of Anderson & Ellis, left on Sunday for San Francisco and other coast points, his mission being a combined business and pleasure trip.

Country Visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Evans were visitors yesterday from Kirkland valley, and the first-named states the principal news in that section is the dismantling of all quartz mills and other plants for junking, deals being closed for everything of a metallic character. In some cases valuable machinery is being destroyed and shipped out of the country to be converted into war munitions.

Went to Los Angeles.

Miss Anna Douglas, who for the past school term has had charge of the commercial department of the Prescott high school, left on Saturday for Los Angeles, where she will spend the vacation months.

Range Visitor.

C. E. Burton motored to the city yesterday from Ash Fork, and reported his sheep as again on summer ranges, and conditions were quite satisfactory. Early rains will restore grazing to a normal condition.

Mining Business.

David Morgan, prominently known as a copper authority, manager of the Verde Combination Co., operating in the Jerome belt, is in the city and is receiving a welcome from his many acquaintances.

Telephone Business.

C. H. Lytle, traveling auditor of the Mountain States Telephone and Telegraph Co., is in the city from Denver, on matters pertaining to his department in this division of the service.

Teacher at Home.

Miss Marguerite Levy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Levy, who had been filling an engagement last term as teacher in the Jerome public school, returned Sunday to spend her vacation at home.

Mining Man Returns.

Mark Murphy, a former resident of this county, and well known in mining circles, was an arrival Sunday from Mill City, Nev., where he is associated with W. A. Kent, in operating a property, and comes on a business trip.

Sad Mission.

Mrs. C. H. Luke, of Oakland, Calif., arrived in Prescott on Sunday afternoon, and a few hours later the death of her husband occurred. He had been under treatment for tuberculosis at a local sanatorium.

Shipping Cattle.

L. L. Harmon was an arrival Sunday from Phoenix, coming to superintend the shipment of about 500 head of steers from his camp Wood range to be loaded at Del Rio on Wednesday. They are sold to Colorado and Salt River valley buyers.

Mining Man Here.

Luther Wilson is in the city from his camp in Crook canyon on business, and reports development continuing on his property. Other mines are also active in that belt and more ore is being shipped out than in many years.

Visiting Miner.

H. A. Price, until recently employed at the Union mine, Chaparral, is in the city to visit with friends for a short time, leaving later for the Mudhole mine at Walker, soon to be placed in action again after suspension of several years.

Drake Recovering.

The friends of W. A. Drake were pleased to learn yesterday that he was recovering from the effects of the recent visitation of paralysis, and was able to be put on the porch for a few hours. His complete recovery is now just a matter of a few weeks.

Teachers Return East.

Miss Almira Luckie left on Saturday afternoon for her home in Milwaukee, and Miss Meta Dexter departed at the same time for her home in New York City. Both of the ladies have been connected with the Prescott schools during the term which has just closed.

Cowboy Visitor.

Tom Yarbrough, one of the famous by-known Colorado cowboys who has won first honors in many western contests in broncho busting and bull-dogging, arrived Sunday from Denver, and comes to take part in the Prescott doings on Fourth of July.

Mildred Active.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan R. Gemung, the former manager of the Mildred Gold Mining Co., which has interests near Rich Hill, are in the city to visit for a short time. Mr. Gemung reports development as continuing and important determinations are anticipated in a short time.

Getting Warm.

Theodore Egbert, a mining investor of Nevada, who returned yesterday from Tiptop district, reported the temperature on Sunday forenoon at 106 degrees, the warmest ever known for so early in June. The visitor is looking over the silver country, and is leaving today for Turkey creek district.

Labor Scarce.

Mr. and Mrs. G. T. Kalls of Tucson, are in the city, the former coming north to employ laborers for general work, but is disappointed in finding a similar condition here as in the southern country. He states it is a situation in which wages are not an inducement, but the man power has dwindled down to a stage that is hardly obtainable. The government is hiring many men, the trades certain workers, while the class of idlers is getting scarcer every day.

Visiting Pioneer.

Dr. J. A. Park, an early-day pharmacist of this city, but for many years identified with mining in Eureka district, where he has valuable interests under development, is in the city for a brief visit with friends, and also to procure a powder license. He states the Copper creek field is the main center of activity at present, but deals are pending in other localities, and as a whole the outlook was better than in many years.

Bodily Injured.

Harry Wells, a Frontier Day celebrity, well-known in Prescott, met